

BOARD OF DIRECTORS' ELECTIONS

The annual school election takes place on the second Tuesday in September. Each annual school election shall be used to elect at least one citizen to the board to maintain a 5 member board and to address other questions that must be submitted to the voters.

Citizens of the school district community seeking a seat on the board must file their nomination papers with the board secretary, or the board secretary's designee, between sixty-four and forty days before the school election unless otherwise directed.

If a vacancy occurs on the board it may be filled by appointment within thirty days of the vacancy. If the board does not fill the vacancy by appointment, the board secretary shall call a special election to fill the vacancy. Candidates for a seat created by a vacancy must file their nomination papers 35 days before the special election.

It shall be the responsibility of the county commissioner of elections to conduct school elections.

The Wapsie Valley School District has been divided into five director districts on the basis of population. Copies of the geographical boundaries are available in the high school office and the Bremer County Courthouse. Each director district will have one director as representative on the school board for a total of five members. The director shall be a resident of the director district but shall be elected by the vote of the electors of the entire district.

Effective September Election 1998 involves District #1 & #2

Effective September Election 1999 involves District #4

Effective September Election 2000 involves District #3 & #5

Cross References: 202 Board of Directors Members
 203 Board of Directors' Conflict of Interest