

REVISION OF POLICY

The Board will keep its policies current as per state standards and with the needs of the times and will take under advisement suggestions from staff, administration, and concerned individuals of the district. New policy will require two readings. Review and revisions require one reading.