

Will both schools be on the same construction schedule?

Different parts of the construction process will be happening at slightly different times at each building, but the intention is that the buildings will be opened for students at the same time.